Summary

We had a bumper crop of matches this weekend: nine in all (and another postponed). Probably uniquely for such a busy weekend, we had more matches on the Sunday than the Saturday.

Starting with Saturday and the ACDBL, the U16B boys' team played away to Mayflower and lost 162-183—a creditable score against tough opposition.

In the Surrey League, the U14 boys lost 3-7 at home to Wimbledon.

The U18 mixed team beat Ace at home 8-0.

On Sunday, in the ACDBL a very young, brave and inexperienced U12 girls team was beaten 72-210 away to Streetswater.

The U14A boys also lost at Streetswater, by 149-194.

In the Surrey League the U18 girls lost 3-7 away to Moles—an extremely close match, though.

The U12 unisex team won away to Chadacre by 9-1.

The U18 boys lost a very close match away to Ebbisham by 4.5-5.5.

The U16 boys team lost away to Carshalton by 2-8, though they only had three players and had to concede four rubber 21-0.

Local Tournaments

Nick Halliwell played in the Berkshire U17 singles closed tournament this weekend and did fantastically well to be the runner-up.
