Match summary

The U10 unisex team played away to Horsell in the Surrey League on Saturday and won 8-2.

The U16 boys played at home to Albury and won 10-0.

In the ACDBL, our U12 boys' B team played at home to Horsell and won 194-175.

The U14 boys' A team played at home to Clandon and won 210-67, including points scored by Lucas Downes, the Swifts player who stepped in to help Clandon to complete its team.

The U14 girls' A team also played at home to Clandon, and won 210-122, including points scored by an ineligible player.

The U16 mixed B team played away to Mayflower B and won 168-92.

The U18 boys played at home to Horsell and won 210-96.

On Sunday the U16 boys' B team won away to Bourne by 190-161.

To round off an unbeaten weekend the U12 unisex team played away to Wimbledon in the Surrey League and won 7½-2½.

National circuit results

Isabel Phillips played in the BE U15 Bronze Essex JC this weekend, reaching the semi-final of the girls' singles.

Coaching qualifications

Recent Swifts members Rebekah Flatman, Alex Lawrence (a regular helper) and Gilly Thomas have all recently gained their BE level 1 coaching qualifications. Well done to all of them.

County representation

Harry Williams played for the Surrey U13 team in the county Team Challenge in Haywards Heath on Saturday (which Surrey won). He also played in another Surrey victory, for the Surrey U13 A team in a Shires League match against Essex on Sunday.

Stephanie Pipe played for Surrey in two U17 Shires League matches this weekend. On Saturday she played against Suffolk and on Sunday the opposition was Essex.
