Match summary

We played our youngest ever age group match on Saturday when our U8s played a friendly match at home to Racqueteers, and won 110-41.

Playing away at Horsell A in the ACDBL on Saturday, the U12 boys' A team clinched the divisional title by winning comfortably 198-134.

The U12 girls played at home to Horsell and lost a close match 170-178, but still clinched the divisional win.

The U16 boys' A team played away to Mayflower and also clinched its divisional win with a 205-139 victory.

In the Surrey League the U14 boys played at home to Ebbisham and lost 2¹/₂-7¹/₂.

On Sunday the U12 boys' B team played away to Lightwater Juniors and won 203-154.

The U16 boys' A team played its second match of the weekend at Bourne and won 193-166.

The U16 girls also ensured their division is won when they played at Bourne and won 204-157.

Samodani is champion!

Samodani Wijetunge played in the U17 national championships at the weekend, winning the girls' singles and reaching the doubles semi-final and the last 16 of the mixed. Well done Samodani—national champion!

She still has another year in the age group too!

Jodie Teale, who also entered the doubles as a reserve, was knocked out by Samodani in the event's group stage. Now that is what I call an unlucky draw—all that travel, only to be beaten by a clubmate.

County representation

Stephanie Pipe and Jodie Teale both played for the adult Surrey 3rd team in its win against the Norfolk 2nd team in the ICC this Sunday.

Last weekend saw Serena Farrelly, Connor Strudwick and Sam Williams all playing in the Surrey U15 2nd team against Sussex in the Shires League.

National circuit results

Sam Williams and Connor Strudwick both played in the BE U15 Hertfordshire Silver JC this weekend. Sam won the boys' singles while Connor reached the semi-final of the doubles.
