Match summary

Our final league match of the season was a visit by our U16 boys to Chadacre in the Surrey League. The result was a 10-0 victory and it as a result we have won one final league division.

That means all but one of the four Surrey League divisions and all but one of the thirteen ACDBL divisions have been won by Swifts teams.

County representation

Lila Dundas, Hayden Mitchell and Dominic Nabasa all played in the Surrey U14 team that finish in second place in the RIO team tournament in York on Saturday, a county invitation- al event held for eight invited teams annually.

Dominic Nabasa, Lila Dundas and Hayden Mitchell

National circuit results

Capping a good weekend in Yorkshire on Sunday, Dominic Nabasa played in the Yorkshire U14 Open and reached the boys' doubles quarter -final.

Local tournament results

This weekend saw the first three age groups of this year's Jubilee Tournament contested, with great Swifts success.

In the U10s, Ben Ford and Jonathan Lai emerged as tournament winners in the boys' event.

Temisha Veeramootoo and Amelia Wells won the U10 girls' event.

The girls' Plate was won by tournament runners-up Lucy Lincoln & Leah Naish, while the Bronze was won by Holly Ranson & Olivia Wells.

In the U14s, the girls' event was won by Amy Chapman & Ellie Darlington, and the runners-up and Plate winners were Ishita Mann & Daisy Murphy.

The boys' event was won by Christopher Chong & Anish Goel, while the runners-up were Matthew Grove & Jacob Sheffield.

Christopher Chong & Amy Chapman won the mixed event, and the runners-up were Anish Goel & Ellie Darlington. Jacob Sheffield & Daisy Murphy won the Bronze.

The U18 mixed event (there were no U18 boys' or girls' competitions) was won by Soon Hau Fun & Serena Farrelly. The runners-up were Alex Tennant-Smith & Emily Chapman.

So, a clean sweep of the tournament trophies this week for Swifts members. Can our U12s and U16s meet the challenge and do likewise on Sunday?
