Match summary

We start the season, as we always do, with a run of matches involving our A and B teams. League rules dictate that each team must play any matches it has against teams from its own club before it can tackle the teams from other clubs.

This week saw the U12 girls and the U14 mixed teams play, with the A teams winning 9-1 and 8-0 respectively.

International success

Smrithi Shirol undertook the long journey to Croatia in order to compete in the WBF U15 Zagreb Open tournament last week. All the travel was worthwhile as she won the girls' singles event and was runner-up in both the doubles and mixed events. Well done Smrithi!

National circuit results

Anish Goel played in the BE Kent U17 Bronze tournament in Gillingham on 18 August and was runner-up in the boy's singles event.

Holly Ranson and Ruby Clark both played in the BE Webber U13 bronze on Saturday. Holly reached the semi-final in the girls' singles event, and playing as a pair with Ruby came third in the doubles. Ruby reached the quarter finals of the singles, and both girls were beaten in the singles by the eventual winner.
