Summary

We had eight matches this weekend—a very busy weekend.

On Saturday the U14 boys C team lost at home to Yeomans Bridge by 47-120.

The U16 mixed B team won away to Yateley Hawks by 113-77.

The U16 girls B team defeated Yeomans Bridge at home by 115-58. This means that the Swifts girls' A team has won this division of the ACDBL.

The U14 mixed A team were also at home to Yeomans Bridge, winning 120-50.

The U10s were away to Yateley Hawks B and won by 120-10. This score has to be a record!

The U16 boys B team were away to Mayflower A and lost by 30-120.

The U14 mixed B match against Yateley Hawks was postponed.

On Sunday the U15 girls team played away to Moles and won 4-3. This team has now won its division of the Surrey league.

The U15 boys were also away to Moles and lost 2-5.

Swifts Badges

Kiran Flora won his U14 badge at the weekend in his first ever match playing for Swifts. Graham Love and Conor Dean won their badges. Well done to all of them!

County Team News

Gilly Thomas played in the Surrey U13 team that won the regional round of the County Challenge at Haywards Heath on Saturday.

Edward Thomas and Michael Daw both played in the Surrey U15 team that won its regional round of the County Challenge, also at Haywards Heath on Saturday.

Both teams have qualified for the national finals at Luton in April.

Andrew Bryan, Georgia Flatman, Polly Thisdell and Stephanie Thomas all played for Surrey U11s in a friendly one-day county tournament.
