Swifts Badges

Sean Robbings gained his very first Swifts badge on Saturday by playing in the boys' U14 team that played Yeomans Bridge.

Chris Hancock gained his U12 badge in the unisex match against Moles.

Sportsmanship

It is worth reminding all players that, as well as shaking hands with your partner and opponents after a game, you should always, when playing with an umpire, shake hands with the umpire and thank him or her.

This is a point of etiquette worth bearing in mind if you get to the later stages of a competition (including the ACDBL doubles tournament next weekend) when umpires are more likely to be available.

National Tournaments

Michael Daw and Edward Thomas took part in the BE U17 Silver tournament in Burgess Hill on Saturday. Playing together they were runners-up in the boys' doubles. Edward was also runner-up in the singles event and Michael made it to the quarter-final.

Several Swifts members played in the U17 Bronze tournament in Slough on Sunday. Ellie Crossley and Jenny Nurse were runners-up in the girls' doubles and Ellie also got to the quarter final of the singles.

Local Tournaments

The U12 and U16 sections of the ACDBL doubles tournament took place on Saturday, with 18 Swifts pairs taking part out of the 60 entered. Seven of these pairs finished as winners or runners-up in their own section.

Georgia Flatman and Stephanie Thomas won the U12 girls' A grade event, while Georgia and Michael Green won the U12 mixed A grade.

Jamie Ellis and Justine Walker were runners-up in the U16 mixed A grade. Tom Frew and Kirsty Walker were third.

Tori Green and Terence Fisher were runners-up in the U16 mixed B grade event.

Justine Walker and Kirsty Walker won the girls' doubles A grade with Tori Green and Esme Bradshaw as runners-up.
