Summary

On Friday the U18 boys played away at Ace in the Surrey League. Unfortunately one player (Conor Dean) became ill part way through the match and another did not turn up to play, so the match was lost 0-10. This was the first time that Ace has ever won a match in the Surrey League.

On Saturday the U18 girls played at home to Ace and won 9-1.

In the ACDBL on Saturday the U14B boys' team lost at home to Streetswater by 135-204.

The U14 boys' A team defeated Yeomans Bridge at home by 200-155.

The U16 boys' B team won at home to Bourne A by 184-162.

The U16 mixed A team won away to Yateley Hawks by 168-66—a big win indeed!

On Sunday the U12B mixed team lost away to Streetswater 132-152. The U16A boys won away to Streetswater by 209-162.

Local Tournaments

Ollie Thompson took part in the half term age group graded tournament at Winchester and won the grade A U11 singles tournament.

National Tournaments

Swifts members seem to be setting new records for travel to tournaments. Last weekend Jessica Ledermann won the girls' singles in the BE U15 JC in Cornwall, while Hannah Thompson won the individual singles title at the Guernsey U18 Open.

County Matches

Tom Frew, Jamie Ellis, Hannah Thompson, Justine Walker and Kirsty Walker were all part of a Surrey U17 squad that travelled to Guernsey to play a triangular match against U18 teams from Guernsey and Jersey. The result was a win for Surrey, and a good time was had by all.
