Summary

In the ACDBL, on Saturday, the U10s defeated Mayflower at home by 167-97.

Also at home to Mayflower, the U14A boys won by 195-142, while the U14 girls won by 197-174.

In the Surrey League, the U18 boys beat Carshalton at home by 7-3, while the U16 mixed team beat Ace by 8-0.

On Sunday in the ACDBL, the U12A mixed team played away to Streetswater and won 150-128, while the U16 boys' A team lost away to Bourne by 161-194.

National Tournaments

Last weekend Gilly Thomas played in the BE U15 Suffolk Bronze JC in Ipswich. She had a highly successful tournament, getting to the final of both the girls' singles and doubles and losing both finals by the close score of 21-19.

This weekend, Ollie Thompson got to the final of the boys' singles in the BE U11 Silver JC, held in Bracknell. He beat William Manners on the way to the final—William got to the quarter-final.

Local Tournaments

Tom Frew got to the final of the boys' singles at the Surrey U16 championships this Saturday. Jamie Ellis got to the semi-final, where he had to give a walkover to Tom because of cramp.

Justine Walker got to the quarter-final of the U16 girls' singles.

Stephanie Thomas went a step better by winning the U12 girls' singles at the same event in Epsom.

First news of the ACDBL singles tournament, which generally takes place at this time of the year. It is scheduled, this season, for Sunday 4 May and is to be held at Lightwater. As it is the week before the opening weekend of the Jubilee Tournament, you might like to earmark it as a good practice session under tournament conditions. It is expected to be graded.

County Matches

Several Swifts members played for Surrey in adult teams over the week-end. Ellie Crossley and James Buffham were in the Surrey 3 team that defeated Bedfordshire, while Hannah Thompson played for the Surrey 4 team away to Northamptonshire.
