Summary

The U18 boys kicked off the weekend last Friday evening. They lost in the Surrey League away to Eagles by 4-6.

On Saturday in the ACDBL there were two matches away to Mayflower on Saturday. The U124B team lost by 129-158.

The U12 A mixed team won by 150-141, even though one of our boys was an U10 girl—Syan Wombwell.

On Sunday two teams played away to Streetswater. The U14B boys won convincingly by 199-151.

The U12 mixed A team, however, had to face very strong opposition and lost by 125-150.

The weekend concluded with two matches away to Bourne on Sunday afternoon. The U16 girls won by 210-72, winning all the rubbers.

The U16A boys also won easily—by 201-147.

Swifts club tournament

The second weekend of the club handicap tournament will be held next Saturday. Please be at Lightwater by 8:45am in time for a prompt 9am start as there will be a lot of matches to get through.

The event will be finished by 1pm for everyone, though some of you will finish earlier. I'll try and send more information later in the week.

National tournaments

Ryan Tinsley won the mixed doubles at the Berkshire U15 Bronze JC at Bracknell on Sunday.

County events

Zoe Taylor, William Manners, Ollie Thompson and Stirling Burrow were all chosen to represent Surrey at an invitation U12 doubles tournament in Leicester at the weekend. Ollie had the best day because he was runner-up in the boys' event. Unfortunately, Stirling and William were less lucky because Stirling was ill and couldn't play so William didn't have a partner.

Swifts Handicap Tournament Results

The club handicap singles tournament was held on Saturday, with a total of 52 players taking part.

Rianna Meme, who was the scratch player, had her first ever tournament victory in the U11 unisex event, while Daniel Green was runner-up.

Jake Handley, again the scratch player, comfortably won the boys' U13 event, with Jonathan Robertson as runner-up.

In the girls' U14 event Emily Hancock beat Rosie Keene in the final, who had knocked out pre-tournament favourite Polly Thisdell.

The U15 boys' winner was another scratch player, Sarinda Wijetunge, with Aaron Phelan finishing as runner-up.

The U16 girls' event was won by Jessica Ledermann and Gilly Thomas, the scratch player, was runner-up.

The U18 event was won by Hannah Thompson (the only girl and the only scratch player) who won a very close final against Nick Halliwell by 21-20.
