Match summary

We originally had three matches arranged for Saturday. For, I think, the first time ever, though, not a single one of the opposition clubs managed to turn out a team and we were left bereft. Not a good day.

County representation

Isabelle Bengé played for the Surrey U13 team that played away and defeated Middlesex in the Shires League on Saturday.

National circuit results

Holly Ranson played in the BE U17 Hampshire Silver tournament on Wednesday, in Winchester. She reached the girls' doubles semi-final.

The BE U19 Kent Bronze tournament was held in Gillingham on Saturday with a strong Swifts presence, at least in terms of quality. The boys doubles event was won by Matthew Barnfield and Sebastian Grove, playing together as a pair.

Holly Ranson was in Gillingham too, and she was rewarded with a runner-up spot in the mixed doubles.

Local tournaments

The second day of competition in the local league singles tournament was held in Lightwater on Sunday, with the U12s and U16s in action.

The U12 grade A girls' winner was Uditia Sharma, with Evie Stewart finishing as runner-up.

Vincent Yuan finished as runner-up in the boys' U12 grade A event.

Lyla Thompson was runner-up in the U12 girls' B grade.

Katie Stevens was third in the girls' U16 B grade event.

Finally, some late results from last week.

Sarah Devapragasam was runner-up in the U14 grade A girls' event, and Gaurav Pamyam achieved the same result in grade B of the U14 boys' event.

Toby Gibson reached the semi final of the grade B U14 boys' event and his brother, Reuben Gibson, reached the U10 boys' semi-finals.
