Match summary

Our teams played four matches on Saturday. The U12 unisex team played a friendly at home to Bourne and won 10-0. All the other matches were ACDBL league matches, and all were away from home.

The U14 boys went to Surrey Sports Park and won 10-0.

The U16 boys played away to Horsell and won 7-3.

The U16 girls were also away to Horsell and won 8-2 after account had been taken of an over-age Horsell player, though many games were close.

National championships

Lila Dundas played in the U17 national championships in Milton Keynes at the weekend. She reached the semi-final of all three events, the girls' singles and doubles and the mixed doubles. Well done, Lila!

County representation

Abigail Barnfield was a member of the Surrey U14 team that lost to Hertfordshire in the Shires League on Saturday.

Isabelle Bengé was a member of the Surrey U12 team that lost to Kent.

Local tournaments

This Sunday saw the second weekend of the local ACDBL doubles tournament. The U12s and U16s were in action.

Udita Sharma & Evie Stewart won the girls' U12 A grade, with Sally Grove & Lyla Thompson also in the final.

In the U16s Matthew Barnfield won the boys' event with Matthew Ellis and the mixed event with Holly Ranson. Holly also won the girls' doubles with Amelia Wells, giving Swifts a clean sweep of the trophies..

New members

We have some more new members to welcome to our ranks. Ruby Clark (U15) isn't new but she is back with us after a year off. She will be in the 11:30am advanced session.

Sanjit Baber is an U12 improver, while Hailey He (U9) and Jack He (U12) are both beginners. All three will attend the 8:30am session.
